Dear pupils, parents and carers,

HUGE WELL DONE TO SYCAMORE CLASS

We are immensely proud of Year 6 for their hard-work, tenacious attitudes and remaining so calm during their SATS last week. They have been working so incredibly hard during the last few terms and we thank the Year 6 staff (Mrs Binnie, Ms Oner, Mr Aaron, Mr Bignall, Mr Wilkinson) for their unwavering drive to ensure all pupils have become the best learners they can be. Year 6 have done themselves proud and we couldn't have asked for anymore from them. Well done.

GOOD LUCK TO BIRCH CLASS

This week, Year 2 embark on their SATS testing. They have been working incredibly hard with Miss Benazayez, Miss Oner and Miss Valentina, and we know they will demonstrate tenacity and confidence in their papers this week. Good luck!

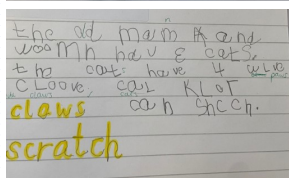

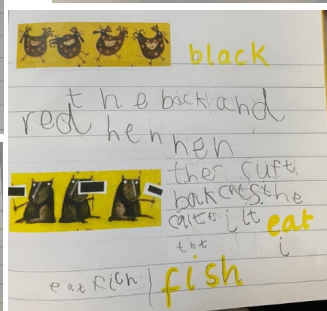

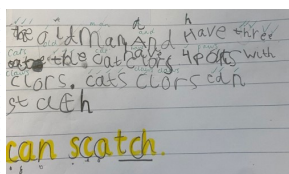

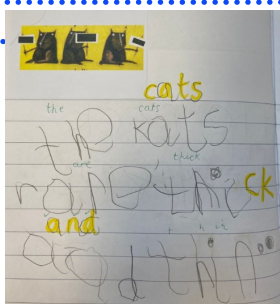

Kind regards,

Daniela Rader, Head of School

FIG CLASS WRITING

Look at the amazing writing in an Early Years classroom. They have been working really hard to use their phonics to write simple sentences about The Gigantic Turnip. Look at the amazing CVC words they have used. Well done!

OLIVE CLASS EXPERIENCE

AWE AND WONDER

Olive Class have been reading the book Imani's Moon and have been writing descriptive passages about the moon, character descriptions and practising writing direct speech. Last week, whilst reading the story, they even found Imani's glowing moon! Wow!

STORY TELLING PROPS IN BIRCH CLASS

Year 2 have been learning about the British Isles in curriculum this term. They have been learning about the different countries and reading books associated with the different countries. This week, they have been creating lovely story props to support their retelling of the story of Robin Hood.
