Week Beginning 27th November 2023

Dear Parents, Carers, Staff and Pupils,

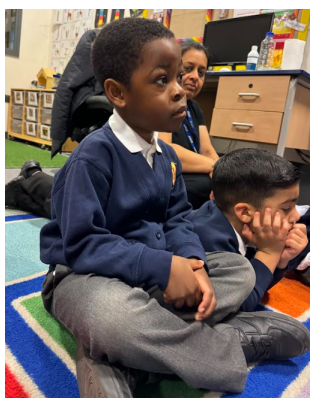

This week Sycamore Class enjoyed a fantastic trip to see The Lion King in the West End, Olive and Sycamore visited Hackney Museum to find out about life in Hackney in recent history and Fig Class had a fascinating workshop about space. See more about some of these events in this issue and on Instagram!

We are looking forward to lots of Christmas-related fun, including a shared Christmas Fair with Holy Trinity and our Christmas performance. Please see the dates below for more information!

Kind regards, Rebecca Mackenzie, Headteacher

Fig Class Space Workshop

Yesterday, Fig Class enjoyed a fascinating workshop about space, thanks to a parent expert! They learned about how the sun reflects onto the moon, how rockets go into space, the clothes that astronauts wear and what it is like being in space. They even watched a rocket take off in their classroom!
